INJERA

TASTE OF ERITREA

SHARED DINING

In Eritrea & Ethiopia meals are eaten in a communal plate where two people or more share the same injera. This is a marker of closeness and friendship.

WHAT WE SERVE

The basis of the meal is the flatbread called injera. Like the picture above you the injera will be served with different sauces, such as:

Kulwa (lamb or beef chunks fried with berbere spices, ghee, tomatoes, and onions)

Tsebhi dorho (chicken stew with boiled eggs)

Tumtumo (a lentil stew)

Shuro (silky ground chickpea stew)

Bamia (a classic stew consisting of okra, a meat like beef or lamb, tomatoes, spices and more)

Hamli (a lukewarm spinach salad)

GH¢ 440 for 2 people

The price for every additional person is GH¢ 190.

SERVED ONLY ON RESERVATION, ASK OUR WAITERS.
